MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Director for Personnel

SUBJECT : Educational Allowances

1. There is no legal objection to the amendment suggested by the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence. Primarily the decision is an administrative one, but for your information, we note that the proposed amendment is consistent with general policies of the Agency and as specifically expressed in Part 14 of the Confidential Funds Regulations. That general policy provides that staff agents will not suffer diminution of the benefits pertaining to staff employees in similar circumstances, and in the converse, if salary or other remuneration received by the staff agent from or through his cover is in excess of that provided in his letter of appointment, such excess shall be refunded to the Agency.
